CROATIA – EL DORADO ON THE ADRIATIC

Croatia has 1,777 kilometres of gorgeous coastline, over 1,000 islands and fantastic cities – a huge open-air museum that is open 24 hours a day. With its crystal-clear sea, picturesque landscapes, delightful architecture and countless hours of sunshine, Croatia is one of the last paradises on the Mediterranean Sea that is free of mass tourism. A country with its own unique cultural identity coupled with a Mediterranean appreciation for the beautiful things in life.

You can experience nature at its finest in the region's world-famous national parks, where you can discover the pristine beauty of Croatia:

- The Kornati, a labyrinth of over 100 islands, straits and reefs
- The Plitvice Lakes, a UNESCO World Natural Heritage site with gorgeous lakes and spectacular waterfalls
- Paklenica, a breathtaking canyon extending from the sea deep into the heart of the Velebit mountain range with cliffs dropping down hundreds of metres.

VIBRANT ZADAR

The centre of the region surrounding Punta Skala is the city of Zadar. Founded over three millennia ago, this gem of a harbour town continues to possess an inviting, unique rhythm that can still be found on every street corner. The town's fascinating sights, including the early Christian cathedral and the pre-Romanesque St Donatus church, are impressive, and the Roman ruins and many museums are definitely worth a visit. Plenty of local restaurants, trendy bars and regular festivals in the city make Zadar a bustling centre.

There are also other cities near Punta Skala that are of cultural interest, such as the historical royal city of Nin as well as the two museum cities – literally – Split and Trogir.

PUNTA SKALA – NEW DIMENSIONS, PLANNED DOWN TO THE LAST DETAIL

In addition to offering high-quality apartments with excellent prospects as holiday properties, the resort also has two Falkensteiner hotels: the five-star Hotel & Spa Iadera, with the best wellness area in Croatia, and the four-star Family Hotel Diadora.

The park-like resort features excellent restaurants, cool bars, chic shops, a long private beach and a variety of sport and leisure activities.

PUNTA SKALA – AN INVESTMENT IN TRUE QUALITY OF LIFE
